

Garden Grove, CA- On Wednesday, June 29, at the Garden Grove Community Center, Congresswoman Loretta Sanchez (CA-47) will host a Job Hunters Boot Camp from 9:00am-2:00pm. The Boot Camp will offer workshops on interview skills and resume writing, along with a one-on-one resume critique to help attendees fine-tune their resumes. The event will also include resource tables from community agencies who can assist job seekers.

“The job market is gradually improving, and job seekers should take advantage of opportunities like this to refine their skills in order to land a good paying job,” Congresswoman Sanchez said. “I am looking forward to seeing attendees connect with local resources that will help with their job search.”

In addition to the workshops, the event will offer a discussion by industry professionals on growing job industries such as healthcare, hospitality and tourism, green jobs, and information technology. Congresswoman Sanchez will also discuss Congress’ work to stimulate the economy and promote job creation.
